

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
College of Public Health
Health Promotion & Behavior

Bernard Ramsey Outstanding Senior Undergraduate Major Award in Health Promotion

Purpose:

To recognize an outstanding senior undergraduate major in Health Promotion based on student academic performance, professional development-related experiences, and accomplishments within the framework of the Professional Health Educator Competencies.

The student selected by the Health Promotion and Behavior Faculty Committee will receive a check for $300 and have his or her name included on the Outstanding Senior Undergraduate Award certificate/plaque to be presented during the spring semester.

Eligibility:

Applicants must have completed the following HPRB Major classes in each category:

- a) at least three of the following: HPRB 3020, HPRB 3700, HPRB 3750, HPRB 3150, HPRB 4450, HPRB 5160, HPRB 3210, HPRB 5060, HPRB 5210, GENE 3200 or BCMB/BIOL 3100; and
- b) HPRB 4400 (or currently enrolled).

Application Process:

The following criteria will serve as guidelines for the application and selection process:

1. Submission of a typed, two-page philosophy statement about health promotion which will include:
 - why you chose health promotion as your major and intended professional career;
 - your professional goals and/or career objectives;
 - what do you have to offer to the health promotion profession.
2. A resume including:
 - your overall GPA and your major GPA (3.0 minimum for both);
 - your professional-related experiences (work and voluntary service);
 - accomplishments while a student at UGA (honors, awards, etc.)

Application Deadline: All applications, with cover sheet, are due to Dr. Hein by March 15th.

Contact:

Dr. Katie D. Hein

151E Wright Hall, Health Sciences Campus

706.542.4358 (office)

706 542 4356 (fax)

khein@uga.edu