Graduate Certificate in Global Health

The Global Health Certificate prepares students to work in our globalized and interconnected world through coursework and an experiential learning component (internship or research project).

Prepared by: Paula Ortiz-Olmstead / Global Health Institute/Biology

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Health Equity/Social Justice
- Global Burden of Disease
- Sociocultural & Political Awareness
- Ethics
- Globalization of Health and Health Care
- Professional Practice
- Social & Environmental Determinants of Health
- Collaboration, Partnering & Communication

REQUIRED COURSE

3 credits

GLOB 7100 Foundations of Global Health

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

3-6 credits

GLOB 8910 Global Health Research or GLOB 7760 Global Health Internship or SAND 7760 Global Health Internship

ELECTIVE COURSES—GLOBAL HEALTH THEME

9-12 credits

INFECTIONOUS DISEASES
MENTAL HEALTH
GLOBAL HEALTH POLICY

MATERNAL/CHILD HEALTH
NUTRITION
CHRONIC DISEASES

DISPLACED POPULATIONS
DISASTER MANAGEMENT

Choose From CPH and other courses

Global Health Institute
College of Public Health
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

- 18 credit hours of coursework total
- Complete 3 credit hours in (1) required course
- Complete 9-12 credit hours of elective courses in a Global Health Theme (see GHI website)
- 3-6 credits of experiential learning (research or internship) are required, may be domestic or abroad
- Students must be admitted to the UGA Graduate School seeking either degree or non-degree status in order to be eligible to apply to the Certificate program
- Students develop a Global Health Theme that guides their course of study; themes approved by program coordinator

UGA Global Health Institute Family

www.ghi.publichealth.uga.edu