Awards Review Committee

2020 HERG Impact Award invited by the CDC Health Economics Research Group Steering Committee (HERG SC). The HERG Impact award recognizes a significant public health or prevention issue using a state-of-the-art economic method, including economic evaluation. It offers information to public health programs, interventions, or policies. Papers published in peer-reviewed journals in the calendar year 2019 are eligible for the 2020 HERG Impact Award.
